The Alan Turing Institute

Data Study Group Briefing Day for prospective collaborators

27 April 10:00 - 13:30

The Alan Turing Institute
British Library
96 Euston Road
London
NW1 2DB

Agenda

10:00-11:00	Welcome and introduction Augusta meeting room
11:00-12:20	Focused working sessions Sessions: • Business and commercial considerations • Scientific and technical aspects of Challenge preparation • Summary of other Turing engagement
12.20-13.10	Lunch
13.10-13.30	Plenary – summary, conclusion and suggested next steps

Please note the British Library public entrance opens at 9.30am and therefore there may be a queue to enter (there is also a bag check). The Alan Turing Institute can be found on the first floor, right hand side. Once you go through the the blue and white entrance, please report to reception to pick up a visitor badge.